

ASPIRE Privacy Policy

The Asia Pacific Initiative on Reproduction (ASPIRE) is committed to protecting your personal data and respecting your privacy.

1. Collection of Personal Data

ASPIRE may collect personal data that you provide to us, including but not limited to your name, contact details, professional information, and payment details, when you apply for membership, register for events, or communicate with us.

2. Use of Personal Data

Your personal data will be used for purposes related to:

- Membership administration and verification
- Communications and updates from ASPIRE
- Event registration and participation
- Delivery of ASPIRE programmes, services, and benefits
- Compliance with legal and regulatory requirements

3. Disclosure of Personal Data

ASPIRE will not sell or misuse your personal data. Your information may be shared only when necessary with:

ASPIRE Secretariat and authorised officers

Service providers supporting membership, events, or payment processing

ASPIRE Country Representatives for engagement and communications

All parties are required to handle your data responsibly and confidentially.

4. Data Protection and Retention

ASPIRE takes reasonable measures to protect your personal data against unauthorised access, use, or disclosure. Personal data will be retained only for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes stated above or as required by law.

5. Access and Correction

You may request access to or correction of your personal data held by ASPIRE by contacting us using the details below.

6. Consent

By submitting your membership application or providing your personal data to ASPIRE, you consent to the collection, use, and disclosure of your data in accordance with this Privacy Policy and the Singapore Personal Data Protection Act.
